

KAHN TO REPORT NEW ARMY BILL TO HOUSE TODAY

Universal Training is Not Included in Draft

EXPECT SHARP OPPOSITION

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, February 25.—Meeting the demand of Republican leaders, the house military committee by a bi-partisan vote today refused to include universal military training in the army reorganization bill which will be formally reported tomorrow by Chairman Kahn.

Sharp opposition to the reorganization program is assured when the bill reached the floor and it may be attacked earlier by a minority report.

In rejecting immediate consideration of the training plan the committee voted that it should become the subject of separate legislation to be framed by a "friendly" sub-committee of seven named by Mr. Kahn with an agreement of the leaders that "derivation would not be blocked after a thorough inquiry had been made of the cost and economic effects."

With this temporary disposal of universal training, the committee voted ten to six to report the reorganization bill providing for a maximum peace-time army of 171,700 officers and 239,000 enlisted men, including the Philippine counts and unassigned recruits. Unlike the national defense act of 1916, which the new bill would amend, no definite tactical formation of the army is prescribed, this being left discretionary with the president. This feature is among the principal causes of the sharp opposition by the minority.

Supporters of universal training plan to offer amendments to force house action on the question, but opponents of the scheme hope to frustrate these attempts thru parliamentary tactics.

Republican leaders opposing the plan's appearance in the army bill included the members of the legislative committee, who based their objection principally on the ground that action should be deferred until the party's stand was outlined by its national convention in June.

The reorganization bill recognizes aviation as a fourth arm of the army along with the infantry, cavalry and artillery each headed by a major general. The tank corps is included in the infantry arm, and the chemical warfare service becomes a separate corps to conduct experiments in gases. Other new service developed during the war are rejected or consolidated in the older branches.

Other liberal provisions for the building up of the army are carried in the bill, including many of the recommendations advocated by guard officers. The reserve officers' training corps in schools and colleges, reserve training camps and citizens' reserve are continued.

The combat strength is authorized to be 250,000, the remainder of the force being absorbed in the supply and administrative services and the Philippine scouts and unassigned recruits. The infantry force is fixed at a maximum strength of 100,000 men and 4,200 officers, the cavalry at 20,500 men and 950 officers, the field artillery at 36,500 men and 1,900 officers, the coast artillery at 10,000 men and 1,200 officers, the air force at 16,000 men, including cadet flyers, and 1,514 officers.

A finance department is established by the bill its duties being strictly that of disbursing war department funds. Purchase and transportation are placed in the quartermaster corps, but business dealings of the department are placed in the charge of an assistant secretary of war. The general staff is limited to the duties of a general staff nature, its personnel being enjoined under the bill "assuming or engaging in work of an administrative nature."

In fixing the various grades of officers the provides for only one general—the rank now held by John J. Pershing—and directs exist when a vacancy occurs. Twenty two major generals are authorized and 46 brigadiers. Nurses, included in the medical corps, are given relative rank with officers but not the pay of the corresponding army grades and Chaplains are to receive relative pay but no rank.

Promotion of officers, under the bill are to be made from a single list and those detailed to the technical force are to remain permanently in those services. Enlistments in the regular army are fixed at one or three years at the option of the recruit. The various grades of enlisted men are left to the president's discretion and subject to his change at any time. Pay of enlisted men is fixed at $30 to $75 a month, with a provision abolishing the present laws for continuous service. The strength of the national guard—$800 to each congressional

POLICEMEN TESTIFY AT TRIAL OF FIVE NEW YORK ASSEMBLYMEN

Deny Allegation by Prosecution Witness That Solomon Spat on Old Glory

(By The Associated Press)
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 25.—The defense in the trial of the five suspended Socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty late today, produced two policemen who denied the allegation by a prosecution witness that Charles Solomon, a defendant, spat on the American flag at a Socialist street corner meeting in Brooklyn in 1917.

Their testimony was sandwiched between the direct and cross examination of Assemblyman Waldman, another defendant, which consumed virtually the entire day. Besides defending his own record in the lower house in 1918 and his attitude during the war Waldman described the "death" of Socialists bills running amok of the "trusts," which the defendants had intimated prompted their suspension.

Introducing his evidence regarding the flag incident, the defense called Assemblyman Solomon to the stand a few minutes to fix the time of the Brooklyn meeting described by the prosecution witness—Miss Allen B. Chivers, an 18 year old stenographer.

Then Police Captain Charles A. Zanes and Patrolman Edward T. Cody two policemen who attended the meeting were sworn. Both denied the story of Miss Chivers that Solomon had his stand decorated with red flags and testified they had not seen the speaker refuse to relinquish his platform to a recruiting party. Miss Chivers had declared Solomon informed the soldiers "the gutter is full enough of you."

When Cody was asked by the defense if Solomon spat on either of the two American flags on his platform, he replied with a grim chuckle:

"Ah—h no."

"You were on duty, weren't you?"

"I sure was."

In cross examination the policeman, who testified the meeting was held in a non-Socialist district "where a red-blooded American would fly at the throat of anyone insulting the flag," the prosecution sought to show that the officers had turned their backs to the stand when the recruiting party came along and could not see what Solomon was doing.

As an explanation of what happened without their noticing it, the prosecution brought out that they had not known of the arrest, until later of a 15 year old youth in the crowd who had called the soldiers "nothing but a lot of cannibals."

COLBY IS NAMED AS SECRETARY OF STATE BY WILSON

In Making Cabinet Selection President Upsets Dope

WAS FORMER REPUBLICAN

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—President Wilson again upset the expectations of official and political Washington today by naming Bainbridge Colby a New York attorney, who left the Republican party with Theodore Roosevelt in 1912 as secretary of state.

The selection almost scarcely less of a sensation than the dismissal of Robert Lansing from the state portfolio, two weeks ago, and was received with such undisguised surprise in the senate, where the president's choice must be approved before Mr. Colby can take up the duties of office, that none of them cared to predict when confirmation might be voted.

Not even among those on the inside of administration circles had there been any expectation that the selection would fall on Mr. Colby, who told inquirers today that he himself had been given only a very brief notice of the president's intention. Summoned to the white house he spent an hour with Mr. Wilson, announced that he would accept with a deep appreciation of the responsibility imposed upon him and said he would have no further comment to make until the senate had acted.

Word of the nomination reached Senators just as they were assembling for the day's session, and in their private talks during the day they discussed little else.

Once before the senate had been called upon to act on a nomination of Mr. Colby and then confirmation was voted also a strong fight against him was held by the two Republican senators from his state. That was in 1917 when President Wilson named him to membership on the shipping board. It was asserted in some quarters that the reasons which led to objection at that time need not necessarily apply in the present case, but Senator Calder of New York said he would insist that the nominee's qualifications for the secretaryship be looked into carefully before he would vote for confirmation to that position.

A native of St. Louis, fifty one years old, Mr. Colby has been engaged in law practice in New York since 1892 except for the nineteen months he was a shipboard member. During the latter service he was an American representative in the international shipping conference at Paris and was active in directing the board's war policy. He resigned in March of last year.

In his New York practice he has been counsel for several insurance companies and was associated with Charles Evans Hughes in the reform of the Equitable company.

Actively supporting Theodore Roosevelt for the Republican presidential nomination in 1912, Mr. Colby was placed in charge of the claims of the contested Roosevelt delegates from various states who eventually were denied convention seats.

He then became a delegate from New York to the first convention of the Progressive party and in 1914 and 1916, he was the Progressive candidate for senator from New York.

In the 1916 campaign, however, he supported actively the campaign of President Wilson for re-election.

GOV. LOWDEN PROCLAIMS ARBOR AND BIRD DAYS

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 25.—In a Frank O. Lowden fixed Friday, April 23 and Friday, October 22 as Arbor and Bird Days.

The proclamation follows: "There is a kind of wealth in birds and trees that defies appraisal. Their beauty and comfort of their shade and song are too universal, too illusive for exact valuation, but there is a sense in which they constitute a very real and a very tangible source of public wealth. The practical utilities which they serve are so great as to make their wealth their conservation a public concern. Any nationwide instruction in thrift must provide for an effort to correct our habits of profligacy and waste of these great natural resources. An intelligent sentiment for the planning and culture of trees and forests must be encouraged. It may prove to be a sound state and national policy to exempt all timber growing lands from taxation. The constant menace of insect pests to an agricultural state like ours make necessary the protection of our wild birds thru the enactment of sentiment and the enactment and enforcement of wise laws. With these objectives in view it was an expression of practical wisdom and sound statesmanship on the part of the general assembly to provide by law for the setting aside each year of a day or days when these important matters should be brought to the attention of the people of the commonwealth in an especial manner thru programs given in our schools, churches, civic and social centers.

"Therefore under the acts of the general assembly passed to encourage the planting of trees shrubs and vines about the home, along the highways and around public grounds, I Frank O. Lowden, governor of the state of Illinois, do hereby designate Friday, April 23, 1920, and Friday, October 22, 1920, as Arbor and Bird Days."

ENTENTE PREMIERS LATEST NOTE FROM PRESIDENT WILSON

Question of Making Public the Correspondence Still Undecided

(By The Associated Press)

EXAMINATION OF MRS. CLUGSTON UNFINISHED

MACOMB, Ill., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Alice Clugston, co-defendant with Dr. George Alverson on a charge of having murdered her husband last July by the administration of arsenic poisoning, took the stand today in her own defense, when court adjourned direct examination had not been completed. Thus far her testimony has dealt with commonplace of her marriage; the medicine Dr. Alverson gave her husband the contents of which she knew nothing; and the history of her husband's illness.

Mrs. Clugston apparently was at her ease on the witness stand, "her voice broke frequently and she waited several times to recover her composure. In an effort to combat the testimony of Dr. William McNally Chicago toxicologist, who performed an autopsy on Clugston's body, and later by chemical analysis he testified he found more than five grains of arsenic in the stomach of the dead man, in the organs of the dead man, the defense called Dr. J. B. Holmet, an Illinois surgeon.

EARLY ACTION BY WILSON ON RAIL BILL IS EXPECTED

Measure Sent to White House for Wilson's Signature

BILL OPPOSED BY LABOR

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The railroad bill was sent to the white house today and the president is expected to act on it one way or another before the roads are returned to private control at 12:01 a. m., next Monday.

The measure is opposed by the railroad brotherhoods, and their representatives now in Washington considering the president's proposal for wage settlement were drafting today a memorial to the executive asking him to veto the bill.

A similar request was made yesterday by George P. Hampton, managing director of the Farmers' National Council who asked that the president hear a delegation from his organization tomorrow.

Other big farmers organizations however, in a letter sent to the white house today urged approval of the legislation.

There has been no indication from the white house as to the president's views on the measure. He has had before him for several days a digest of the bill prepared by Director General Hines after the senate and house conferees finally agreed to the measure in the form in which it was approved by the house last Saturday and the senate last Monday.

After it was received at the executive office today the bill was sent to the department of justice for an opinion as to its validity.

The president has until midnight, March 8 to act on the bill before it would become a law without his signature but since he has ordered the roads returned on March 1, he is expected to act promptly.

The farmers' letter asking approval of the bill pointed to the memorial drawn up at the recent meeting here of representatives of the international farm congress, American Farm Bureau Federation, National Grange, National Farmers' Union, Farmers' National Congress, National Milk Producers' Federation, American Cotton association, several State Farmers' Unions and the Dairy-men's League of America.

Individual groups of union representatives continued to debate the position the unions would take toward the president's suggested wage data commission. Few of the fifteen organizations were near agreement.

LITTLE PROSPECT FOR ROAD BUILDING

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 25.—Illinois may be a "little bit of heaven" with roads paved with pure gold if the cost of highway construction keeps increasing state highway officials said today after opening bids which showed that in the last month the cost per mile has increased $8,000.

The bids opened today showed the average cost to be $50,000 a mile compared with $42,000 a mile on February 11, when bids were last received and $23,000 a mile last year.

The bids submitted today to the department of public works and buildings were taken under consideration and it is considered probable that the department will suspend its plan to construct 1-100 miles of roads this year. No contracts have been let so far.

Conferees of highway department contractors with a view to reducing the cost of construction have failed to bring a reduction.

Contractors here today at the opening of the bids declared that the increased cost of sand and gravel was responsible for the high bids.

PEACE TREATY WILL BE PUT BEFORE THE SENATE AGAIN TODAY

Continued Consideration of Pact Until Final Vote is Taken Agreed to

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—The peace treaty will be called before the senate again tomorrow under an agreement to keep it continually under consideration until a vote is reached on ratification.

"No one knows what will happen," said Republican and Democratic leaders alike tonight as they surveyed the perplexing possibilities with which the treaty now is confronted.

Some of the rank and file were more confident in their predictions, however, various friends of the treaty on both sides of the chamber declaring ratification was certain and all of its irreconcilable enemies agreeing that ratification was impossible. It generally was conceded that the debate would not be permitted to drag out interminably this time and that the treaty after a few weeks brought action both sides would be willing to face a final test of strength and then let the issue, if undecided go into the annals.

With the Republicans still claiming 22 Democrats ready to accept the Republican reservation and with Democratic leaders still insisting that enough administration senators to prevent ratification would hold out for a compromise, negotiations to bring the two sides together appeared to be again in a state of deadlock.

It was expected however, that private conferences would continue as the senate debate was resumed and it was these changes that the treaty's supporters pinned their hopes.

When the treaty is called upon the reservation affecting Article Ten and embodying the most serious barrier to agreement will be the first proposition to prevent itself for action. It generally is expected however, that it will be put over for a present while the senate proceeds with other proposed compromise amendments.

NEWBERRY TELEGRAMS READ INTO RECORD

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 25.—Telegrams passing between Truman H. Newberry in New York and his campaign managers in Detroit were read into the record today at the elections conspiracy trial in United States district court.

Allen A. Templeton, vice-president of the Detroit board of commerce, February 13, 1918, advised Commander Newberry that "Cody men" and others thought Paul H. King, "quite necessary."

A message from Newberry to King on July 27 informed the campaign manager of a midnight telephone conversation with William Alden Smith, retiring United States senator.

"At midnight Smith telephoned from Grand Rapids, asking if I would surely stick to a finish," read this latter message. "I replied most emphatically yes. He said he did not want to run. His petitions were all ready and he would decide and win on Saturday. He wanted to see me next week. Seemed very friendly and I asked for his support."

The famous Newberry-Osborn-Smith conference in New York, which never took place, was referred to in two telegrams. Paul King, wired Newberry on July 19 that Osborn was on his way east.

"He evidently told Times all about it, as they have a big story, first page that national leaders are trying to clear way for him."

The same day B. F. Emery, wired Frederick Cody in New York asking him to "follow line our conversation yesterday."

CHANGES MADE IN PRESERVING METHODS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Ripe olives which have caused many deaths recently from poisoning may be eaten with impunity within a few months as a result of changes being made in preserving methods, Dr. Carl Alsberg, chief of the bureau of chemistry, stated today.

"Canning methods are being revolutionized," he said. "The makers are co-operating with the bureau and instituting changes in methods which will remove all dangers of poison from next season's crop."

One of the principal packing changes, Dr. Alsberg said is abandonment of glass containers which prevent proper sterilization. All cases of ripe olive poisoning have originated from olives packed in tin cans or from pickled green olives.

FEDERAL AGENTS SPEND LITTLE TIME IN MICHIGAN CITY

Fail in Mission to Clean up Iron City Rum Revolt

(By The Associated Press)
IRON RIVER, Mich., Feb. 26.—Thirty five federal agents and members of the Michigan constabulary, who arrived here last night under orders to suppress the rum, prohibition commission for the central states to "clean up" Iron county tonight were enroute back to their home stations, while Major Dalrymple was bound for Washington in conference with Prohibition Commissioner John Kramer.

Major Dalrymple, who led the armed expedition to Iron River, in the heart of the Upper Peninsula iron belt with the avowed purpose of arresting county and village officers on charges of conspiracy to obstruct the enforcement of the prohibition law was called off by Mr. Kramer, and ordered to meet the opposing side and seek a compromise without legal action.

The worsting of federal agents in the first clash with the community in the enforcement of the eighth amendment to the constitution has given a serious blow to the enforcement of the dry law. Major Dalrymple declared before he left for Washington.

Martin S. McDonough, prosecuting attorney of Iron county and leader of the county authorities, who, Major Dalrymple declared were in "open revolt" against the United States received a telegram today from District Attorney Nelson H. Walker at Grand Rapids advising him to take no action until the district attorney could come here to investigate.

Mr. McDonough had obtained a warrant for the arrest of Major Dalrymple charging him with malicious libel and had planned to have it served when the train bringing the federal men arrived last night.

A telephone message from Crystal Falls, 15 miles away, however, notified McDonough that Major Dalrymple in anticipation of trouble had sent fifty rounds of ammunition to each man in his party. The prosecutor then advised Iron River citizens to go home and avoid any demonstration that might provoke open hostilities.

Today Mr. McDonough waited upon Major Dalrymple at his hotel and warned him that if he carried out his announced plan and arrested anyone in Iron county without a warrant, or searched any private home in the county for liquor the county officers would "arrest every man in your party and put them in jail."

The prohibition director already had received orders from Mr. Kramer at Washington, calling off the "armed invasion" and as a result no arrests were made.

Iron River miners worked far into the night tonight at their usual occupation. The ore they brought to the surface, however, was liquor buried two days ago when word of Major Dalrymple's contemplated "armed invasion" first reached the community.

"We took our supplies out in the woods and buried them," citizens laughingly admitted today, "and tonight, after Major Dalrymple has left they will be dug up again."

Iron River was quiet tonight after one of the most hectic days in its history. The federal officials left for Chicago at 6:30 p. m., but few persons were at the station to see them off. Major Dalrymple denied that he intended to offer his resignation unless the support he had asked for was forthcoming. He will make my report and let the facts speak for themselves," he said.

Prosecutor McDonough made no effort to have his warrant for Major Dalrymple's arrest served. He declared he was awaiting the arrival of District Attorney Walker, "when I will demand a full and complete investigation of this affair and of Major Dalrymple's part in giving the United States the impression that Iron county is in 'revolt' and is inhabited by savages."

McDonough served during the war as a captain and is an officer of the Iron River Post of the American Legion. Iron River is loyal to the government, he declared, and pointed to the town's large contribution to the army and the support given various war causes.

WHY HAVE A SECRETARY?

Bainbridge Colby who is the choice of Pres. Wilson as secretary of state, is not unknown to the American public. He gained most prominence as an associate of Col. Roosevelt in the Progressive movement but later aligned himself with the Democratic party. He has held a number of positions of responsibility and presumably has expressed to President Wilson willingness to serve as secretary of state and to execute what the president outlines.

Mr. Wilson doesn't want an adviser but someone to carry on the work that he outlines. There really isn't much need of having a secretary during the few remaining months of the present administration.

IT'S THE MEN THAT COUNT

The proposed changes in the judicial affairs of the state which will come thru to the people in the constitutional convention will probably abolish justice courts or limit their powers. There have frequently been charges of corruption and incompetency in connection with the justice courts especially in the cities.

There may be something the matter with the system but generally speaking it is a question of men and not of the system. If conscientious qualified men are chosen to office the administration of affairs will be satisfactory.

ORGANIZATION BRINGS RESULTS

The success which is attending the Y. W. C. A. drive gives further proof of the advantage of preliminary work. There have been weeks of preparation and the people have been quite fully advised about the Y. W. C. A. its work in the past, its present needs and its plans for the future. It has been a case of Y. W. C. A. propaganda and of an effective kind.

THERE IS ALWAYS A WAY

The Chicago & Alton railroad has practically agreed to build a switch to the pumping station approaching it from the north instead of from the south as first proposed. This action goes to show that first judgment is not always the best and further that "where there is a will there is a way."

The Alton management at first without any great showing of courtesy refused to build the switch from the north. Then the city proposed the other route and it develops that it has advantages over the earlier plan.

NOT A NEW THEORY

Edwin Meredith, the new secretary of agriculture, in talking about the much worn H. C. L. theme, says that investigations and resolutions about living costs will do no good, that the lower prices will come only from individual action. The secretary advances the theory that prices are high simply because people are will not pay them. The theory is neither very new nor very interesting. Most people feel that continued refusal on their part to pay the prices asked for necessities will be a quick route toward starvation.

Some members of the constitutional convention would like to have the work hurried along so that questions could be submitted to the people in July, just a few weeks after the national convention. There are others who advocate a much later date—that is, after the November election. On one point there is general agreement, that the questions must be submitted without entangling influences and must stand or fall on their own merits.

WOMEN A SPUR TO VOTING

(Chicago News) The time is coming when men will longer forget election day in the lure of the golfing greens; when the polls will not be deserted for a fishing trip. This will be due to the influence of women according to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National American Women Suffrage association.

"The women of the nation will have keener political consciousness than men and will be instrumental in bringing about a time when it will be universally realized that self-government is the greatest blessing that can come to a people, when the privilege will be carefully guarded and treasured," she said. "Women are not denuded with failures. They are coming into politics with hope and expectation, and they will bring new life and vision with them."

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

Testamentary. "Of course I'll make my will," said Mike, "when I am in the mood, some day; it is a job I much dislike; it brings me visions of decay. But I'm resolved to do it soon; from that resolve there's no retreat; I'll do it another moon has waxed and waned, so help me Pete." Then he goes touring on the sea, to breathe some wholesome atmosphere; he winds his car around a tree; then he is placed upon a pier. Then lawyers like the ravens lit from every quarter to his gate; they come with warrant, deed and writ, and divvy up that man's estate. The lawyers gather in the kale that may be hid in safe or till; in vain the rightful heirs may wait—the dead man failed to make a will. He is indeed a foolish skate who puts off duties such as this, for no man knoweth when his fate shall send him to the realms of bliss. At any hour a wrench may overhead, and land upon your dome, kerflop, so that you line up with the dead. The wise man has his life insured, and makes his will, strong and hale; when when lies in the clay immured, the rightful heirs will get the kale.

Hospital Aid Ladies to be Guests at Luncheon

Some time since the members of the Hospital Aid Society, undertook a campaign to raise funds, each member pledging herself to earn and contribute $1 toward the fund. At a luncheon to be given by Mrs. E. W. Brown at her home on West State street next Thursday, March 4, the members will be called upon to tell how they earned their money. These recitals will doubtless be very interesting and it is expected that a substantial sum will be secured for the laundry fund.

Woodson Household Science Club Meeting

The Woodson Household Science club held a regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Maude Spahnower. There was a very good attendance. The roll call was answered by quotations from Washington. Myrtle Crain read a paper on the life of Washington. Edith Jones gave a demonstration of chicken salad.

Dance at Brown's Business College

The students of Brown's Business college gave a very enjoyable dancing program Tuesday night at the college. Randall's orchestra furnished some excellent music. About fifty couples were present for this event, which was one of the most successful given at the college in recent months.

The decorations were especially beautiful and were in charge of Misses Helen Jackson, Margaret Harrison, Helen Carlson, Marie Schy and Mabel Tholen. Principal F. B. Mauck, announced that there will be dances at the college at intervals in future days and this announcement was received with pleasure by the students and their friends.

Rev. W. H. Marbach Speaks at Wednesday Class

The Wednesday class met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Barnes, on West State street. There was a very good attendance of members and guests.

Rev. W. H. Marbach, made a talk on Palestine, which country he visited in 1913. He said that his first impression of the land was one of timeliness and the wonder to him was how so much history was made in so small a land. Here in the land from which the Christian religion sprang, one has a feeling that he is on holy ground. The civilization is of course Oriental and the unprogressiveness and misrule of the Turks were very evident.

He spoke of the famous churches, the wailing place of the Jews and the Sea of Galilee and the Jordan Valley. Post cards and photos added much to the interest and instructiveness of the talk.

During the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Now That You Have Rememberd What Will You Do About It?

—We told you last week that "The point to remember is that clothing is going to cost more next Fall." That a thorough investigation had proven charges of profiteering to be unfounded.

—We are not pessimistic by nature, and don't want to make you so, yet we cannot urge upon you too strongly the one fact that a positive woolen shortage exists, prices are bound to be higher, and that he will be the wise man who anticipates his needs a little and buys now.

—We expect to be in business next Fall as usual, and gladly will make up your suits and overcoats in the same old satisfactory manner; but, wouldn't you feel a lot kinder towards us if you found that you actually had been able to save a nice sum of money by taking advantage of advice given because of our natural inside knowledge of the clothing situation? Nothing but a miracle can alter the conditions existing, and the age of such miracles is past.

—Anyway, drop in and talk over with me your needs for the near future; I will advise you frankly and honestly.

The ceremony was said by the Rev. J. E. Teaney, of Atwater, an uncle of the bride and was witnessed by about fifty relatives and intimate friends.

The couple were unattended and entered the parlors, where the ceremony was said, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Dorothea Sargent. NAME FOR LAKE IS ABSORBING THEME Mauvaisterre as Word With Local History Finds Many Advocates — Special Committee Will Hold First Session Tonight.

Possibly the name most frequently advocated as appropriate for Jacksonville's new lake is Mauvaisterre. A. L. French, in talking about this much discussed theme said yesterday that by all means Mauvaisterre seemed to him the most fitting word to use. Mauvaisterre may be a little long and somewhat difficult for non-residents to pronounce, but it is distinctive and has been handed down locally thru generations.

A great many people feel that the lake should have some name which will give it special emphasis rather than to adopt a name which happens to be well known but not with local meaning or color.

This reference to the lake brings to mind the fact that Dr. J. R. Harker, who is temporary chairman of the committee delegated to christen this new body of water, has called a meeting for Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Woman's college. Letters containing this announcement are in the mails for members of the committee.

It is likely that at this conference a plan will be formulated by which the committee thru a short period will seek to get at the opinions and best judgments of the people. The committee must of course use its own final judgement but no doubt wishes as far as possible to be in accord with any prevailing public sentiment.

She loved the church and gave her willing service, whenever she had opportunity being a Bible school teacher for some time. She received her common school education at Central Point school, and was always counted as one of the best pupils. She won a silver medal at one term of school for ranking first, keeping the medal every month except one. She also won a scholarship. The deceased attended high school in Jacksonville, but owing to the condition of her health she was not permitted to finish at high school.

Mrs. Whitlock was laid to rest on Feb. 14th 1920 in Roberts cemetery. Dr. G. W. Miller, of Woodson, had charge of the funeral service assisted by Rev. M. L. Penton of Jacksonville. She will be missed in the home and in the church as well as in the community. Friends and relatives share with her loved ones in their great sorrow.

KNIGHTS DEFEATED CHANDLERVILLE TEAM

Win Game by Score of 28 to 20 After being on Short end of Score at end of First Half—Leeper visiting center proved Star Player.

The Knights of Columbus basketball five came from behind in the game with Chandlerville at Liberty Hall Wednesday and won out by a score of 28 to 20. The Knights started the game with Froelich and Cain on the side lines. The score at the end of the first half was 9 to 8 in favor of the visitors.

In the second half both teams played some sterling basketball. Rook did especially accurate work in this half counting six times for a total of 12 points. Rexroat, Clancy, Costello, Bergschneider and Cain also played a good game. Rexroat was up against Leeper and did well to hold him.

Leeper proved to be one of the best, if not the best center seen on the Liberty hall floor this season. He played the floor, passed well and was accurate in shooting baskets.

While the game was hard fought and fast it was remarkably free from personal fouls. Andrew of Illinois was the referee and his work gave satisfaction to both players and spectators. The score:

LAND TRANSACTIONS LIMITED THESE DAYS

Activity Not Like That of Same Period in 1919—An Interesting Land Price Opinion

The many public sales, which have been held on Morgan county farms recently give some indication of the numerous changes that will take place March 1. In numerous instances the sales of livestock and implements have been sold and the owner or tenant is thus compelled to move. Inability to secure other lands for farming purposes has caused still other states. While numerous transfers of land for which contracts have been made will be consummated March 1, there is not as much county real estate activity as there was a year ago or in the early months of last summer.

There have been comparatively few sales of land made within the last two months. In the opinion of some observers this is due to the continued attacks made upon the prices of farm products. It is true that livestock and grain prices have shown a downward tendency while prices for everything else continue to ascend. The repeated hammering of prices of products of the farm has naturally made some men wonder whether this policy will be followed so long that prices are permanently reduced. If this should happen the owner of high priced land would have difficulty in making it produce sufficient crops to make reasonable return upon the investment.

It is interesting to consider the varying views that people now have concerning land values. A Jacksonville banker who is a land owner said yesterday that he fully believes that in the course of the next few years lands now selling at $300 to $350 an acre will be quoted at $500. "This is my belief," he said, "altho I also believe that before that higher time comes there is likely to be a point lower than the present real estate market. I think the man who has a good piece of land and makes up his mind to keep and farm it, while he may have regrets and misgivings few years hence will eventually find that his property has increased 40 to 50 per cent in value over the present quotation."

"I saw somewhere not long ago that land has doubled in value every 10 years during the past century. If you compare the $1.25 government price of 1820 with the price for these same lands now you can see that this statement is more than true. But bringing the discussion of land values down to more recent years, say since 1890, a look at the records will prove that good land has during that period doubled in value every ten years. "With these still higher land prices there must come more intensive farming and I think it wholly probable that even in this locality there must come some irrigation system to make it certain that whatever moisture is necessary for crop production will be available."

"I base my belief of higher prices not only on history and the advances made decade after decade, but in considering the future as well. The population is increasing rapidly and the area of good tillable land in the U. S. cannot be greatly increased. So there is going to be a greater production and a stronger demand and it is these two things that will be quite certain to push land values upward."

TAYLOR REED VICTIM OF HIGHWAYMEN

Two masked men attempted to hold up Taylor Reed, as he was on his way home last night, about 9:30.

As Reed was going East on East Independence avenue, just east of Main street, two men jumped from behind a barn and struck him over the head. The blow knocked him down but he was quickly on his feet and immediately came to the police station. The blow cut a deep hole in Mr. Reed's head and the wound is now slowly healing.

Chief Kiloran with Captain El. and a patrolman Williams and Stewart immediately started in search of the highwaymen but at a late hour this morning no arrests had been made.

Mr. Reed was able to give a good description of the men and the police expect to be able to place the men under arrest.

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2. and yet have the best remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep their homes without it. It's simple and easy, but the way it takes hold of a cough will soon earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a pint bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly a home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less.
It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat irritation, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.
Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.
To avoid disappointment ask your druggists for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with direct instructions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded.

CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggists for three quarters of an ounce of Menthol-ized Arcline and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

CHAPIN INTERESTED IN Y. W. C. A. PLANS

Enthusiastic Meeting of Women Held There Wednesday—Active Interest Shown All Thru County.

A conference of women interested in the Y. W. C. A. campaign was held at Chapin Wednesday afternoon. Miss Mary Wadsworth, county chairman, was accompanied by Miss Roe, who is a state organization secretary. The meeting had been called by Mrs. F. M. Roberts of the Aid Society of the Christian church but the attendance was by no means confined to that organization.

Women representing several churches were present and there is no doubt but that Chapin will meet its quota in the course of a very few days.

In possibly two or three precincts of the county the work of solicitation has been delayed but the promises have been given by workers that an active interest will be shown and the funds desired contributed before the week's campaign closes.

It is of course very gratifying to the committee to have the work move along so smoothly in Jacksonville and all over the county. It has of course been the purpose to raise not only the county's quota but to have a worth while sum to begin the work in a local way. In fact, the plans are already well along in the making for active Y. W. C. A. work in the county.

INCOME-TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Aside from the salary which a clergyman receives during the year, he must consider as taxable income the fees received for special services performed for individuals or organizations. Also in case he is furnished with a rectory, or living quarters, the fair rental value of the accommodations thus provided must be considered income just as truly as though he were paid the value in cash and expended it for his home or quarters as a personal expense. If his meals are provided by the congregation, free of charge to him, the fair value of such board is taxable income. In addition, there may be bank interest, bond interest, and a number of other kinds of income which must be considered taxable to a clergyman, as in the case of the farmer, business man, and wage worker. Many clergymen receive fees for special services, which may cover simple recitals of prayers for the dead, or marriage ceremonies, and other ceremonies, and services which are incident to their calling. No Tax on Gifts. Bona-fide gifts are not taxable under the Income-Tax laws. However, there is a clear distinction to be made between a fee and a gift. The annual Christmas offering to the pastor, which is a custom in many parishes, is purely and simply a gift. But the Easter collection for his benefit is considered to be in the nature of additional compensation for his services to the individuals contributing. A clergyman may receive an unusually large fee, which might have the appearance of a gift. But if that fee was in consideration of the performance of some service, the offering must be considered taxable income.

NAMES FOR NEW LAKE

ADD LAKES Feb. 25, 1920.—We think that Peace Lake, would be the most peaceable solution of the name problem. Also it might suggest a peaceable settlement of the vexatious water question. The Pacificator.

Editor Journal: I suggested the name "Mauvais Lake" for our new lake. I now favor "Lincoln Lake." The suggestion made by Mrs. Felix E. Farrell is very appropriate. There were and are so many great men for whom the lake might be named, and the committee will have the difficult task of deciding upon the one best, whether it be Lincoln, Lowden, Roosevelt, Cody, or Chief Iron Tail, all of whom have visited our city. I would like to add that over the lake, away at the lake we should have in large letters for whom the lake is named. A stranger in Chicago might ask, "where is 'Lincoln Park'?" The answer would be an indefinite one, "on the south side." The question might be asked in Jacksonville, "where is Lincoln Lake?" The answer would be "on the south side." A sign reading "Nichols Park" at the entrance to our beautiful park would be proper. Yours truly, Irvin W. Cully, 1159 Lafayette Avenue.

BLUFFS HIGH SAYS PITTSFIELD WON'T PLAY

Scott County Team Says Pittsfield Failed to Play Return Game in Bluffs—Ask for Correction of Statement in Journal.

Some time ago the Journal in commenting on the Pittsfield High School basketball team stated it had two victories over Bluffs. The sporting editor of the Journal knew that Pittsfield had a game scheduled at Bluffs and asked someone how the second game resulted. The information was that Pittsfield had won. The story was written on the strength of that statement. However, from the article that is herewith appended, it seems that the Pittsfield team for some reason failed to fill its scheduled arrangement with Bluffs.

The Journal regrets the error occurring in the story and is glad to make the correction. It also hopes that Bluffs and Pittsfield will meet in the district tournament here and settle the mooted question of supremacy. The article from the Bluffs high school pupils is given herewith in full:

Bluffs, Ill., Feb. 24, 1920. Jacksonville Journal Co., Jacksonville, Ill.

Gentlemen: We, the pupils of Bluffs High School wish the Jacksonville Journal Co. to correct the following statement in the Journal of Friday, Feb. 20, 1920.

In the list of victories for the Pike county team are two over Bluffs which also has a fast bunch this year. Bluffs had not lost a game until she ran into the Pittsfield Juggernaut. It should have been:

In the list of victories for the Pike county team is one over Bluffs, etc., for Pittsfield refused to play a return game here.

In the game at Pittsfield Bluffs was ahead 24 to 22 until the last few minutes of play, when Thompson was put out of the game with an injured nose. Pittsfield won 36 to 28. We do not know why Pittsfield does not want to play us a return game.

If you will please correct the above, we will greatly appreciate it.

Respectfully yours, Bluffs High School.
